

Whatcom County Library System - Teen Library Council (TLC)

Love the library? Want to volunteer? Join this group of dedicated teens who create, promote, and run teen programs and assist with other library events. In the past, TLC groups have designed and participated in teen fandom overnights, created a Harry Potter-themed escape room, and assisted library staff in running children's programs. TLC members are invited to have their book reviews published in the Teen Read On newsletter or recorded for our Teen Book Vlog. Participating in TLC is a great way to build your résumé, meet new people, and make the library more awesome for all teens.

Who can join the Teen Library Council?

- Whatcom County teens in grades 7 -12
- Available to attend one meeting a month
- Able to participate through the end of May

How do I join the TLC?

Fill out the attached TLC application or download one online from our teen page at wcls.org/teens. Applications are accepted year-round. Turn your completed application at the Ferndale or Lynden Library. Library staff will be in touch with you to let you know when the group is meeting next and answer any questions you might have.

Questions? Call or email our TLC staff members for more information or questions.
